SALUTE TO VETERANS

The elements were unkind but the spirits of both parade participants and spectators were undimmed as cold winds whipped the stars and stripes and sent chills through the crowd as a sun was in and out among scudding clouds. An excellent display of marching units, floats and civic vehicles were enjoyed on November 11th as Benjamin Dexter, ramrod straight, led his troops through the host town of Marion. The annual tribute to the service of brave men make winners of all who pause in honor. Among the many who marched, the following were singled out for special recognition and trophies to remember the event by judges Ray Pickles of Marion, John Atkinson of Mattapoisett and Betty A. Muela of Wareham:

Thanksgiving Services

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE

An ecumenical service of worship, to which all in the community are invited, will be held on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, November 26, at 7:30 p.m. in St. Anthony's Church, Hammond and Barstow Streets. The liturgy of praise and gratitude will be conducted by the clergy of the participating churches -- St. Anthony's, the Mattapoisett Friends Meeting and the Mattapoisett Congregational Church with music by a combined choir. There will be a fellowship hour directly following the service. Come--and bring neighbors!

An offering will be received for local charities.

THANKSGIVING MASSES IN ROCHESTER

Thanksgiving Masses at the St. Rose of Lima Church, Rochester, will be Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, 7:00 p.m.; and Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, 9:00 a.m.

Letter to the Editor

In view of the recent vote on Proposition 2 1/2 the news tonight that the ORR School Committee has sued the Town of Mattapoisett for cutting its (the committee's) budget is most distressing. The action seems ill-advised and only hardens the lines between school officials and taxpayers in the latters' efforts to gain control over school spending. Small wonder.

Open Letter

TO MATTAPOISETT AND ROCHESTER

An Open Letter of explanation from your Building Inspector.

On October 22, 1980 this headline appeared on a local newspaper, "DePina to resign". True, I did write a letter of resignation to the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Mattapoisett but for two reasons this letter was never delivered.

The first reason was that I listened to a sound advice of our Town Counsel, Mr. Donald Fleming, a man whom I have learned to honor and respect his determination to serve his people with the best of his knowledge. Thank you Don.

The other reason was that I also listened to our Town Clerk, Mrs. Lois Bassett. I shall always be indebted to this dedicated woman. It is her loyal support that had helped to make our Building Department what it is today. Thank you Lois.

I am also grateful to all the fine people of Mattapoisett and Rochester who approached me and voiced their concern and their desires that I should continue to serve the two towns in the capacity of your Building Inspector. Thank you Mattapoisett and Rochester.

Respectfully Yours,
Jonathan T. DePina

Bowling League

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE-NOV. 11

True to his word, John Hayes (363) savored revenge on alleys 11 and 12 by leading Sturtevant and Hook to a two-point win over Herbert Snell (346) and his T.V. shop quintet. Jack O'Leary (406) and Bobbie Jefferson (413) shocked the Marion Golf Club out of all three points, notwithstanding a 326 set bowled by Billy Holt - broken leg and all. Charlie Savery, Jr. was tops for the golfers with a 387. Tempers flared in a hotly contested battle between the pirate team, Bowling Stones, and Hartley Saw Mill. Headed into the final string, both had somehow managed to win one point by a one pin margin. Captain Larry Gracia, perhaps a bit overconfident of victory, finally admitted defeat muttering, "It's a gift, pure and simple!" Ted Walega (388) was high for the victors and gentleman Paul White led the pirate team with 354. Louie McKay had a head rush, belted out a four-bagger and a 421 and walked off with everything but the men's room sign. Eddie Strawn (393) attempted to stop the white-wash job by Nanfelt's but fell prey to catcalls from his G.P.C. teammates.

Century III Scholarship

Rebecca Dunn has won the Century III Leaders Scholarship competition at Old Rochester Regional High School, according to David Hagen, Principal.

The 17-year old senior is now eligible to compete with other high school seniors throughout Massachusetts for two $1,500 scholarships, two $500 scholarships, and also for a $10,000 national scholarship that will be awarded in a conference of state winners in historic Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia.

Miss Dunn triumphed in the local phase of the Century III Leaders program, a scholarship competition which emphasizes the future concerns of America. Students were judged on the basis of their leadership abilities, community involvement and score on a current events examination. To compete at the state level, Miss Dunn must now write a brief projection outlining what she thinks is one of America's future challenges and how it should be met.

Runners-up in the competition at Old Rochester Regional High School are William Worden of Mattapoisett and Sally Ayotte of Rochester.

Miss Dunn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Dunn of Mattapoisett, now competes with other high school winners from around the state for four scholarships and an opportunity for the $10,000 top national scholarship.

The two Massachusetts winners will receive an all-expenses-paid trip to the fifth annual Century III National Leadership Seminar in Williamsburg March 13-16, 1980, to participate in seminars on current issues. In previous years, speakers at these seminars were such notables as news commentators Harry Reasoner and Howard K. Smith, architect/futurist Buckminster Fuller, and the Libraries of Congress, Daniel Boorstin.

The program is administered by the National Association of Secondary School Principals and funded the Shell Oil Company.

SATURDAY PROGRAM - NOVEMBER 22

The Saturday before Thanksgiving will be observed with a special Indian program given by Mrs. Kathleen Roberts from Raynham. Four year olds and up are invited to learn about how Indians made food, shelter and clothing. Indian stories and legends will be read. Children will make an Indian craft to take home with them, and, weather permitting, a group Indian dance will highlight the afternoon's learning experience. Please call in advance to register. The program starts at 2:00 p.m. and there is a small charge for non-members.

FIELD WALK - NOVEMBER 22

A trip to the winter seashore will be featured for the Saturday morning field walk. Shore birds can still be seen as they battle the elements for survival along the area shoreline. All of the animal and plant life at our native seashore moves into its winter cycle and there is much to be seen. Come observe with us. Open to all ages, free, the walk starts at 10:00 a.m., this Saturday, November 22nd.

BIRD SEED SALE

The Children's Museum's second Bird Seed sale of the season will be held on December 6th. The Museum will have sunflower seed, wild bird seed, cracked corn, sunflower hearts, thistle seed, and special black sunflower seed. Now is the time to help the winter birds through the cold season. If your seed supply is running low, please call the Museum for ordering,

There will also be a .410 gauge event for women with a special 22 pound to 24 pound turkey as the prize. Both the junior and women's event will be from 30 yards instead of 40.

Youth Hockey

You win some, you lose some. That's just about how things went for Rochester on November 15. That is all except for the Mites; in that division, the Rochester Cubs had to settle for a tie. The score was 2-2, the opponent was Bourne. Jeff Lawrence scored those two goals unassisted. Scott Hartley was in goal.

The Squirt Division seemed to be on the losing end of the stick this week. The A. W. Martin Co. Bruins of Division II lost to Provincetown 3-0. Bryan Becotte was in net. In the Squirt III Division, the Pandas lost to Chatham 4-1. Dean Vincent scored that lone goal assisted by Andy Nye. The goalie for that game was Chris Vandal.

In the Peewee II Division, the Mattapoisett Pharmacy Kodiaks won over Dennis-Yarmouth with a score of 4-1. Jay Vincent scored for two, assisted for one by Matt Smith and for the other by Chris White. Chris White also scored two, one assisted by Jay Vincent, the other unassisted. Jeff Humphrey was in net. In the Peewee III Division, the American Flexible Conduit Co. Polars walked away with a shut-out. They defeated Sandwich with a score of 5-0. Scott Smith scored once assisted by Eric Raymond, and John Duryea scored one assisted by Sean Brice. In addition to that assist, Sean Brice earned himself a Hat Trick with an assist from Chris Danse and two unassisted goals, one of which was on a shorthanded line; just a great day for Sean. Art Parks was in the net for his first time this season on that shut-out.

The New Design Kitchen Bantam Grizzlys defeated Harwich with what seemed to be the numbers of the day with a score of 4-1. Scoring was done by Mike Costa, Chris Hilley, Andy McIntire and Mark Sanford with a goal apiece. Joe Lattimer was in goal.

WHALING CITY ARM
WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIPS

The grunts and groans you hear are from the New Bedford YMCA where the men are practicing for the "Y"'s 5th annual arm wrestling championships, scheduled for Saturday, November 22nd, at 10:00 a.m.

Last year forty-five men competing in six weight classes "strong-armed" their way through a tough and exciting tournament. The competition is expected to be even tougher this year as several men are intent on avenging close losses from last year.

The YMCA uses the "Scranton-style" of arm wrestling, explained Vincent Goglia, Physical Director. This is the sitting method of arm wrestling originated in Scranton many years ago and is a stricter form than the Petaluma or standing

Girl Scout Cookies

Mrs. Gerard Berger of Dartmouth, chairperson of the Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council's fall cookie sale in the Greater New Bedford Area, has announced Girl Scouts will be selling cookies between November 16 and 30.

Mrs. Barbara Spake, Council Cookie Sale Director/Director of Business Services, said, "Over the years the cost of providing Girl Scouting has been increasing. In 1979 it cost $570,047 to provide Girl Scouting to 19,356 girls in 995 Girl Scout troops, which were supported by 3,968 adult volunteers. $213,453, or 40.2% of the total Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council, a United Way Agency's, 1979 income came from the Cookie Sales. They are our most important source of income."

Mrs. Spake related that when girls sell cookies a percentage of the proceeds goes into their troop treasury which enables troops to plan and carry out innovative programs. She also said that after the Burry Company (baker of the product) has been paid 65 cents per box, the Council's share of the proceeds is used in a variety of ways.

Some of the key services provided by the Council are: girl recruitment and the recruitment, placement, training and supervision of adult volunteer leadership; day and resident camping opportunities for girls and Girl Scout families on seven Council owned and maintained properties; financial assistance for girls needing aid for camping and other wider opportunities and Service Unit (a community) supplies.

Other services provided by the local Council are: a central office which houses a resource library, audio/visual equipment for loan, a Girl Scout Shop where a variety of badges and novelty items may be purchased, as well as the Museum of Girl Scouting in Southeastern Massachu-

Concerned citizens of the community formed the library associates in 1974 to assist the SMU Library in, as university President Donald E. Walker put it, its "undernourished condition". Since that time, the associates have raised approximately $25,000 to improve library services in areas not covered by state funding and to assist in expanding service to users in the surrounding communities.

"SMU is a tax-assisted university," said Mrs. Sumner James Waring, Jr, president of the associates, "but state funding always lags behind what is required to meet national library standards. Contributions from the community are needed to help us catch up. We urge the public to become members of the associates and to attend the meeting on the 21st."

GREAT AMERICAN SMOKEOUT

On November 20, the American Cancer Society will once again celebrate THE GREAT AMERICAN SMOKEOUT, a national effort to motivate smokers to kick the cigarette habit.

This year's goal is for 350,000 Massachusetts smokers to "take the pledge", either by phone to the Greater New Bedford Chapter of the American Cancer Society's Office at 996-6262 or by signing SMOKEOUT pledge cards, and quit smoking for one day -- November 20. We hope some smokers will find it easier than they thought, and decide to quit smoking completely.

The American Cancer Society has a SMOKERS' QUITLINE, a statewide toll-free phone line for smokers to call for moral support or referral to quit smoking programs. The number is 1-800-952-7444.

Visiting Nurse Service.

Massachusetts Blue Cross requested proposals from hospitals, nursing homes, visiting nurse associations and other qualified agencies so that various hospice models could be assessed during a two-year pilot project. Five models will be selected in October for the project and will be operated under a $400,000 grant that will be underwritten by Massachusetts Blue Cross.

Eventually Massachusetts Blue Cross will extend insurance coverage to include hospice care for terminally ill cancer patients.

In May of this year, Mr. Al Chin, Administrative Resident, and Mrs. Beverly Breault, Director of the Visiting Nurse Service, were asked to actively initiate the planning process necessary to the development of a hospice program. Mr. Chin and Mrs. Breault, with the support of the Executive Director of the Hospital and the Associate Director of Patient Care Services, Mary C. Halloran, prepared the hospice proposal which was submitted to Blue Cross in July.

The concept of hospice care as described in the Hospital's proposal is based on services to be provided by St. Luke's Visiting Nurse Service.

Mrs. Breault will administer and coordinate all hospice activities. Services such as nursing, homemaker health aides, physi-

Hospice is a word that derives from Latin for guest. It is a term that was used centuries ago to designate lodging where religious orders took in strangers, the sick or travelers.

The contemporary concept of hospice care, which evolved in Europe, embodies the acceptance of death as a natural part of life. The hospice approach to care also makes provision for compassionate physical and emotional support for the dying and their grieving survivors.

The hospice idea, especially in England, has fostered creation of care centers in pastoral settings. In the United States, the hospice movement is relatively new and tends toward providing comprehensive care to the patient in the home setting. This approach allows the dying person to be kept comfortable at home amidst familiar surroundings, family and friends as long as possible.

According to Miss Halloran, "Our VNS currently provides much of the necessary components of a hospice program. After months of discussion and research, we now have in place a flexible but formal structure for a hospice program."

The proposal also contains additional plans, Miss Halloran noted, for the recruitment and training of volunteers to work with the patients and their families.

Cranberry World

"Portraits in Print and Paint, An Array of Plymouth Personalities" is the title for the final art exhibition of the 1980 season scheduled at the Cranberry World Visitors' Center, Plymouth, throughout November.

Twenty-four works by prominent area artists will be featured at the admission-free visitors' center, located on Water Street, a quarter-mile from Plymouth Rock and the Mayflower II.

The exhibit covers a wide range of media with everything from paintings and pastels to clay and cartoons. But, according to Anita Franks, curator of Cranberry World, the entire collection consists of portraits,

"I have endeavored to show a wide stylistic variety as well as a few of the many possible techniques by which artists may interpret their subjects", Ms. Franks said. "The diversity of talent at work in this area is not limited to professional artists nor to the traditional 'oil on canvas' format."

Among the most intriguing works is an interpretive portrait of an original Mayflower passenger, John Alden, a Plymouth resident from 1620 to 1631, created by Jane Flavell Collins of Duxbury, Mass.

Four cartoon likenesses by local newspaper cartoonist Paul Donelan are also included, with one of William "Cozy" Barrett, a noted Plymouth political figure for more than 30 years.

The Pilgrim Society has loaned a bronze work of the bust of Ruth Gardner Davis Steinway, created by her daughter-in-law, Mary Castle ("Cassie") Steinway. A clay self-portrait of Richard Seaman will also be on display.

"Portraits in Print and Paint" is the eighth monthly art exhibit to be offered by Cranberry World this year during its "Anniversary Festival of Music and the Arts". The year-long anniversary celebration has also included an exhibit depicting life-styles of the year the agricultural cooperative was founded, called "1930 Re-Visited".

During a typical 30-minute tour, the 300-year saga of the cranberry unfolds via period and contemporary artifacts, photo montages, a cranberry bog diorama, and audio-visual presentations that help describe and illustrate the story of this native American fruit. In addition, three working bogs surround the visitors' center complex.
